AND BY signing up and submitting the Application Form on the website given including paying any money to the company, the Client agree to have read, understood and willingly accepted Terms and Conditions of this contract document.

representatives of each Party with the appropriate decision-making authority to resolve it.

- 2.2 In the event the representatives referred in Paragraph 2.1 are unable to reach agreement within thirty (30) days, or such longer period as they may agree, then either Party shall refer the matter to an expert in accordance with Part 3 or, if the Dispute is not a Technical Dispute, they may commence arbitration of the Dispute in accordance with Part 4.
- 2.3 The right to have Disputes determined by an expert or by an arbitrator accordingly, shall survive termination of this Agreement.

Part 3: Technical Disputes

- 3.1 In the event that the Parties are unable to resolve a Technical Dispute in accordance with Part 2, then any Party shall refer the Technical Dispute to an expert for determination, in which case the provisions of Paragraphs 3.2 to 3.3 shall apply.

In the event of any conflict between the terms of this Part 3 and the terms of the remainder of this Agreement other than Parts 1, 2 and 4, the terms of the remainder of this Agreement other than Parts 1, 2 and 4 shall take precedence.

- 3.2 The expert shall have demonstrated expertise in the area to which the Technical Dispute relates and shall not directly or indirectly be associated with either Party as agent, employee, consultant, and contractor or otherwise.

In the event that the Parties cannot agree within thirty (30) days as to whether a Dispute falls within the definition of a Technical Dispute, this Part 3 shall not be used to resolve the Dispute and the Parties shall proceed directly to arbitration under Part 4 to resolve the Dispute.

- 3.3 The Party initiating submission of a Technical Dispute to an expert shall provide the other Party with a notice stating that it is submitting the Technical Dispute to an expert and nominating the person it proposes to be the expert.

The other Party shall, within 30 days after receiving such notice, notify the initiating Party as to whether the proposed expert is acceptable. No progress in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given to the other party.

If the non-initiating Party fails to respond or notifies the initiating Party that the proposed expert is not acceptable, either Party may request the Chairman for the time being of Kenya Branch of Chartered Institute of Arbitrators of the United Kingdom to nominate an expert as quickly as possible.

If the Chairman for the time being of Kenya Branch of Chartered Institute of Arbitrators of the United Kingdom is unwilling or unable to appoint an expert, the Dispute shall not be referred to an expert and either Party may, by notice to the other Party, refer the Dispute to arbitration in accordance with Part 4.

The expert shall be engaged on such reasonable terms as the expert shall accept. The following procedure shall apply to determination of a Dispute by an expert and the Parties shall procure that it is reflected in the expert's terms of engagement:

3.3.1 The expert shall:

Give each of the Parties the opportunity of making oral and/or written representations to him on the matter in Dispute within thirty (30) days of the referral of the Dispute to him; give his decision within thirty (30) days (or such longer period as may be decided by the expert but not exceeding 60 days) from the earlier of the cessation of the period specified in Paragraph 3.3.1(a) or the date that the expert is satisfied that it has received adequate representations from both Parties;

Give written reasons for his decision;

determine the amount of his fees and the costs of referral to him in accordance with the terms of his engagement and which Party shall be responsible for such fees and costs; and Give copies of his decision and the reasons for his decision in writing to each of the Parties.

- 3.3.2 The Parties shall promptly provide the expert and each other with all such evidence and information within their respective possession or control as the expert may consider necessary for determining the Dispute or which is relevant to and bears upon the Dispute.

- 3.3.3 If the expert shall fail to give his decision pursuant to Paragraph 3.3.1 within the period specified in Paragraph 3.3.1(b), either Party may by notice to the other require that the Dispute is decided by reference to arbitration pursuant to Part 4, whereupon the expert shall be instructed not to consider the matter further.

- 3.3.4 The expert shall not act as arbitrator and shall decide the Dispute referred to him using his skill, experience and knowledge and with regard to such matters as are expressly specified in this Agreement to be considered by him and as the expert in his sole discretion considers appropriate.

The decision of the expert pursuant to this Part 3 shall (subject to Paragraph 3.3.3) be final and binding on the Parties, save in respect of fraud or manifest error.

- 3.3.5 Unless the expert's decision is set aside for reasons specified in Paragraph 3.3.4, the Parties agree to be bound by this Agreement in accordance with, and undertake to implement, as the case may be, the determination of the expert.

If a Dispute concerning the expert's determination is submitted to arbitration in accordance with Part 4, the arbitrator shall be bound by the determination of the expert and the only issue for the arbitrator to determine shall be whether the Parties have complied with the determination of the expert.

- 3.3.6 In the event that the Parties do not agree to be bound by, this Agreement in accordance with, and undertake to implement, as the case may be, the determination of the expert in accordance with Paragraph 3.3.5, such non-compliance with the determination of the expert shall be referred to an arbitrator, in accordance with Part 4.

The arbitrator shall be bound by the determination of the expert given in accordance with Paragraph 3.3.1, and the only issue for the arbitrator to determine shall be the Parties' compliance with the determination of the Expert.

- 3.3.7 In the event that the expert fails or is unable to act in relation to the Dispute for a continuous period of one month or (being a firm or partnership) is dissolved or discontinued or (being a company) goes into liquidation, other than for the purpose of a scheme of reconstruction or amalgamation, or commences carrying on its business under an administrator, receiver, manager or liquidator for the benefit of its creditors, then the Parties shall agree on a substitute expert. The substitute expert shall be selected in accordance with the procedure specified in this Paragraph 3.3.

Part 4: Arbitration

- 4.1 Either Party shall or/ must refer, by notice to the other Party, any Dispute that is not resolved pursuant to Part 2 or is not required by this Agreement to be determined by an expert under Part 3 shall finally and bindingly determined by an arbitrator in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1995 (Act No. 4 of 1995) of the Laws of Kenya (or any other enabling Law) or any statutory modification thereof, as amended from time to time.

The arbitrator shall possess skills in the interpretation, negotiation or implementation of said service performance

(as appropriate) and shall not, directly or indirectly, be associated with either Party as officer, employee, consultant, contractor or otherwise.

The Parties will jointly appoint an arbitrator after thirty (30) days of the referral of the Dispute to arbitration.

If an arbitrator is not appointed after thirty (30) days of such referral, either Party may request the Chairman for the time being of Kenya Branch of Chartered Institute of Arbitrators of the United Kingdom to appoint an arbitrator as quickly as possible (and the [the Chairman for the time being of Kenya Branch of Chartered Institute of Arbitrators of the United Kingdom] shall be the appointing authority under the Arbitration Act 1995 (Act No. 4 of 1995) of the Laws of Kenya (or any other enabling Law) or any statutory modification thereof.

The arbitrator shall be engaged on such reasonable terms as shall be accepted/agreed.

The Parties undertake to implement the arbitration award.

- 4.2 In the event that the arbitrator fails or is unable to act in relation to the Dispute for a continuous period of one month or (being a firm or partnership) is dissolved or discontinued or (being a company) goes into liquidation other than for the purpose of a scheme of reconstruction or amalgamation, or commences carrying on its business under an administrator, receiver, manager or liquidator for the benefit of its creditors, then the Parties shall agree on a substitute arbitrator.

The substitute arbitrator shall be selected in accordance with the procedure specified in Paragraph 4.1

- 4.3 The arbitrator shall apportion the costs of the arbitration including incidental expenses between the Parties as he shall think fit. The award rendered shall be in writing and shall set forth in reasonable detail the facts of the Dispute and the reasons for the arbitrator's decision.

- 4.4 During the course of any arbitration hereunder:

- a) The Company may (on her own discretion) suspend the said Works to facilitate an amicable solution of the said discrepancy.

- b) Neither Party shall exercise any other remedies arising under this Agreement with respect to the matters in Dispute.

- 4.5 The arbitrator may consolidate an arbitration arising out of or relating to this Agreement with any arbitration arising out of or relating to one or more of other Agreements that provides for arbitration in accordance with the Arbitration Act 1995 (Act No. 4 of 1995) of the Laws of Kenya (or any other enabling Law) or any statutory modification thereof, as amended from time to time;

If the subject matter of the disputes arises out of or relates to essentially the same facts or transactions. Such consolidated arbitration shall be determined by the arbitrator appointed for the arbitration proceeding that was commenced first in time.
